

COVID update as of Dec. 4

The government has announced that York and Durham regions will remain in the red zone of the COVID-19 response framework.

Based on the latest data, the following public health regions will also move from their current level in the framework to the following levels effective Monday, Dec. 7 at 12:01 a.m.:

Orange-Restrict

- Middlesex-London Health Unit
- Thunder Bay District Health Unit

Yellow-Protect

- Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit

Click here for more information.

The government says it's taking the steps to stop the spread of COVID-19 in order to keep schools open, safeguard health system capacity, and protect the province's most vulnerable populations.

With respect to vaccines, the government has announced a plan to collaborate with industry experts. RESCON expects more fulsome details in the very near future, including a plan on how the broader Ontario/Canadian population will be vaccinated.

Click here for more information.